

The Burt Award for Caribbean Literature 2014

Eligibility and Entry Guidelines

The Burt Award for Caribbean Literature is a new, annual Award that will be given to three English-language literary works for young adults (aged 12 through 18) written by Caribbean authors. Established by CODE – a Canadian charitable organization that has been supporting literacy and learning for over 50 years – in collaboration with William (Bill) Burt and the Literary Prizes Foundation and the Bocas Lit Fest, the Award aims to provide engaging and culturally-relevant books for young people across the Caribbean.

Up to three prizes will be awarded each year to the authors of the winning titles: a First Prize of $10,000 CAD, a Second Prize of $7,000 CAD and a Third Prize of $5,000 CAD.

NEW! Publishers of winning titles will be awarded a guaranteed purchase of up to 2,500 copies of each winning book. Copies purchased by the program will be donated to select libraries, schools and literacy organizations for distribution throughout the region. Winning publishers commit to actively market an additional minimum of 1,200 copies of each winning title and to work with CODE to develop digital versions (ebooks) of winning titles.

NEW! Published books, previously self-published books, and unpublished manuscripts are now eligible for the Award. Eligible books and manuscripts can be submitted by publishers registered and operating in the Caribbean OR submitted by authors directly.

NEW! Books published between 1 October 2009 and 24 October 2013 and eligible manuscripts must be received at the office of the Bocas Lit Fest by 25 October 2013. Books that arrive after the deadline will not be considered. The Award longlist will be announced in February 2014. The shortlist will be announced in March 2014. The winners will be announced in April 2014 at the NGC Bocas Lit Fest in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago.

Award Eligibility and Submission Criteria

- The Award is open to original, English-language literary works for young adults by a Caribbean author*. See Appendix 1 for definitions of which territories constitute the Caribbean for the purposes of the Burt Award for Caribbean Literature. For this Award, the term young adult generally refers to readers from ages 12 through 18.
- Works of literary fiction and non-fiction written for young adults are eligible for the Award. Works of poetry or drama, anthologies, short story collections, graphic novels, textbooks or instructional manuals are not eligible.
- Published books, previously self-published books, and unpublished manuscripts are eligible for the Award.
- Eligible books and manuscripts can be submitted by publishers registered and operating in the Caribbean OR submitted by authors directly.
- In the case of published entries, they must have been first published between 1 October 2009 and 24 October 2013. (In subsequent years of the Award, books published in the 12 months prior to the submission date only will be eligible.)
- Books and manuscripts must be in English. Works that have been translated into English are eligible. In these cases, the Award would be shared equally between the author and translator.
- Books or manuscripts submitted for consideration should be a minimum of approximately 30,000 words or 120 pages long.
- Works should be engaging and entertaining and reflect issues of interest to Caribbean youth. The Award is given for literary and artistic excellence. Publishers and authors should submit works accordingly.

I. Eligibility of Authors

- Authors must have been born in or citizens of an eligible Caribbean* country, regardless of current place of residence.
- Authors must have been alive on 24 October 2013.

II. Eligibility of Publishers

- Eligible books and manuscripts must be submitted by publishers registered and operating in the Caribbean*.

III. Eligibility of professionally published books or previously self-published books

- Must have been published for the first time in book form between 1 October 2009 and 24 October 2013. (In subsequent years of the Award, books published in the 12 months prior to the submission date only will be eligible for the Award.)
- Must have an ISBN.
- Must be a minimum of approximately 120 pages (or 30,000 words) in length.
- In the case of a self-published book submitted by an author, the author must agree to have the work published by an eligible publisher within six (6) months of notification that it has been successful in the competition.

IV. Eligibility of unpublished manuscripts

- Must be bound: no loose or stapled sheets will be accepted.
- Manuscripts must be a minimum of approximately 30,000 words (or 120 pages) in length.
- Manuscripts will be assessed alongside published books: it is recommended that manuscripts be edited. If submitted by a publisher, the publisher must agree to publish the work within six (6) months of notification if it is successful in the competition. If submitted by an author, the author must agree to have the work published by an eligible publisher within six (6) months of notification that it has been successful in the competition.

*See Appendix 1 for definitions of which territories constitute the Caribbean for the purposes of the Burt Award for Caribbean Literature.

Award Terms and Conditions

- Publishers must notify authors of titles entered for the Award. Winning authors will be invited to attend the Award ceremony in Port of Spain Trinidad in April 2014 and to participate in activities to promote themselves, their titles, and the Award.
- Publishers or authors must provide five (5) copies of each title entered at the time of submission. Publishers and authors must agree to provide a further five (5) copies of the titles if they are shortlisted.
- Each submitted title must be accompanied by a completed entry form, including a short biographical note about the author.
- Publishers or authors of shortlisted titles must agree to provide digital photos of authors and participate in media and promotional activities related to the Award.
- Once the winners have been contacted, they must confirm acceptance of the prize and agree to keep the results of the competition confidential until CODE and Bocas Lit Fest makes the official announcement.
- Publishers of winning unpublished manuscripts they submitted must agree to publish the work within six (6) months of notification that it has been successful in the competition.
- Authors of winning unpublished manuscripts or previously self-published that they submitted must agree to be published by an eligible publisher within six (6) months of notification that it has been successful in the competition.
- Publishers of winning titles are requested to provide to CODE, at no cost, twenty copies of winning books for promotion and sponsorship purposes.

- Publishers must commit to actively market an additional minimum 1,200 copies of each of the winning titles. Publishers must also commit to working with CODE to develop digital versions (e-books) of winning titles.
- Authors and publishers of winning books must participate fully in all Award events, including the prize presentation, receptions, media interviews and press conferences. They must also allow photographs and public information about themselves to be used for promotion of the awards and in other CODE promotional initiatives.
- The support of CODE should be clearly acknowledged in any public announcements, advertising or publications related to books that receive a Burt Award.
- Winning titles will be chosen based on their literary merit, and their ability to engage young readers and to address issues confronting youth in the Caribbean. There is no guarantee that all three prizes will be awarded every year. Only titles that meet the criteria and standards of the jury will be deemed worthy of winning prizes.
- The decisions of the jury are final.

Deadline:

Publishers or authors must send five copies of each title entered by courier to the Bocas Lit Fest.

The Bocas Lit Fest

Attn: Burt Award for Caribbean Literature
38 Coblentz Avenue
Cascade, Port of Spain
Trinidad and Tobago
Telephone: 1 (868) 625 8328

Titles must be accompanied by a completed entry form, including a short biographical note about the author.

Titles must be received by the Award administrators by 25 October 2013. Titles that arrive after the deadline will not be considered.

Works will be accepted at the discretion of the chair of the jury, who will determine questions of eligibility when necessary. Works deemed ineligible will not be returned to publishers or authors.

Judging:

The Burt Award for Caribbean Literature will be judged by an independent jury administered by the Bocas Lit Fest. The jury will consist of four members and will include one Chair, one

Canadian representative chosen by CODE and two representatives chosen by The Bocas Lit Fest.
The decisions of the jury are final.
